

Fill in for or since into the gaps. Present perfect is used.

Example: They've lived in France for eight years.

1. Nobody has seen him since last Friday.
2. It has been foggy for some days.
3. The pilots have been on strike for two months.
4. We've had terrible weather since Saturday.
5. I've known Tom since 1990.
6. She hasn't lost a match since April.
7. Things have changed since he became the headmaster.
8. Our dog has been ill for two days.

Put the verbs into the gaps. Use Present Perfect.

Example: The cat has just caught a mouse.

1. The students have booked a flight to Vienna.
2. Jack and Brian have just drawn this picture.
3. He has already invited his friends.
4. My friends have passed the geography test.
5. The teacher has lost the keys, so he can't open the door.
6. We have already downloaded the worksheets.

Directions: Put the verbs in parentheses into the past simple or past continuous.

1. While they were walking, they saw a fence.
2. While they were crossing the ocean, a terrible storm nearly destroyed the raft.
3. They ran away one night while it was raining.
4. While he was wandering in the wilderness, he met some people who helped him.
5. When the men were sailing on the ocean, they saw many sea creatures.
6. While he was living in an abandoned bus, he realized he might die.

Directions: Complete the following sentences with the correct form of the verb. (ing or infinitive)

1. I don't fancy going out tonight.
2. Maria avoided telling his boyfriend about her plans.
3. The man helped me carry my suitcases.
4. I've finished cooking, come and eat!
5. He decided to study biology.
6. My mom dislikes waiting.

We can use should when we are giving advice about what to do or what not to do.

Select one:

True

False

Fill in the blanks with present perfect or simple past.

Example: A few days ago, we drove to his uncle. (drive)

1. I saw a great film yesterday.
2. Have you ever bought a cheap laptop?
3. Sue had the flu last winter.
4. Last week my rabbit ran away.
5. Has she ever been in India?
6. They have already arrived in Germany.

Directions: Write the past participle form of each verb. Remember the rules that we have regular and irregular verbs.

Look at the example: Buy= Bought

- 1-Sing: Sung
- 2-Hide: Hidden
- 3-Break: Broken
- 4-Bring: Brought
- 5-Choose: Chosen
- 6-Go: Gone
- 7-Do: Done
- 8-Catch: Caught
- 9-Cost: Cost
- 10-Eat: Eaten
- 11-Fall: Fallen
- 12-Fight: Fought
- 13-Fly: Flown
- 14-Forget: Forgotten
- 15-Give: Given
- 16-Have: Had
- 17-Speak: Spoken
- 18-Stand: Stood
- 19-Take: Taken
- 20-Teach: Taught

The present perfect is used to describe an action or situation that started in the past and continues in the future.

Select one:

True

False

The prepositions for and since are both used to describe intervals of time but they are used in different ways.

Select one:

True

False